The Applicant acknowledges that the information provided here is true and current and that the ACSKG may contact references in order to confirm this information.

The Applicant acknowledges that there are no reasons why they would not be able to safely and competently guide sea kayak tours due to physical, psychological or other limitations. The Applicant has read and understood the ACSKG Operating Standards & Guide Requirements (www.acskg.ca/standards) and agrees to follow these Standards & Requirements to the best of their ability. Additionally, the Applicant agrees to follow ACSKG Minimum Impact Standards (www.acskg.ca/impact) while continuing to develop and maintain a high level of competency with each category of the ACSKG Leadership Course Curriculum (www.acskg.ca/curriculum).

The following two excerpts are from ACSKG Operating Standards & Guide Requirements:

- Clients must remain between the two guides and within vocal range of the guides while on the water.
- Deck loads must be minimal to maintain the seaworthiness of each kayak.

The Applicant hereby agrees to follow ACSKG Operating Standards & Guide Requirements:
