The Applicant acknowledges that the information provided here is true and current and that the ACSKG may contact references in order to confirm this information.

The Applicant acknowledges that there are no reasons why they would not be able to safely and competently guide sea kayak tours due to physical, psychological or other limitations. The Applicant has read and understood the ACSKG Operating Standards & Guide Requirements (www.acskg.ca/standards) and agrees to follow these Standards & Requirements to the best of their ability. Additionally, the Applicant agrees to follow ACSKG Minimum Impact Standards (www.acskg.ca/impact) while continuing to develop and maintain a high level of competency with each category of the ACSKG Leadership Course Curriculum (www.acskg.ca/curriculum).

The following are excerpts from the ACSKG's Standards :

- Clients must remain between the two guides and within vocal range of the guides while on the water.
- Deck loads must be minimal to maintain the seaworthiness of each kayak.
- In mixed fleets, at least one guide must be in a single kayak.
- We will store food away from tent sites and hang food in a cache overnight and when the camp is not occupied.

The undersigned Applicant acknowledges the above information and hereby agrees to follow ACSKG Operating Standards & Guide Requirements, as well as the ACSKG Minimum Impact Standards:

Signed by Applicant: _____ Date: _____

ACSKG certified full guides must complete this form every ten years, then scan or photograph the completed form and email it to the ACSKG. Digital copies of your first aid, CPR & radio certificates must also be emailed to the ACSKG. (Radio certificates are not required from recertifying guides.) Thank you.
